. Heard.

2. The premises in question were given to the father of the petitioner in a slum clearance by Maharashtra Housing & Area Development Authority (MHADA). However, after the death of the father, the petitioner, being the son, did not occupy the premises. On the contrary, he leased out or let out the said premises to some other person. The MHADA found that it is an unauthorised occupation and, therefore, has taken action.

3. Under these circumstances, the petitioner claims that the said premises and/or alternate accommodation be given to him. No case for getting the premises has been made out. We refrain to entertain the Petition and it is hereby rejected.
